clergyman. Dr. Fabris will, if not de tained by Archbishop Corrigan, leave Hoboken immediately.

The parishioners of the Church of Our Lady of Peace, Hoboken, are still loyal to their late pastor, Father Corrigan, and very bitter towards Dr. Fabris, whom they charge with being guilty of a number of things.

The Roman Catholics of the Newark diocese say that the decision is not to the discredit of Father Hennessey, but Dr. Fabris's reputation was at stake, and it has now been vindicated. Others claim that Bishop Wigger is trying to Cahensylize the diocese.

An appeal will be made immediately to Archbishop Corrigan. Twelve people swore to the truth of Father Hennessey's accusations, while Dr. Fabris took the stand for himself. It is expected that the Archbishop will alter the decision.
